Form I-134 - Affidavit of Support—Continued

(Please tear off this sheet before submitting Affidavit)

U. S. Department of Justice Immigration and Naturalization Service

Affidavit of Support

INSTRUCTIONS

I. EXECUTION OF AFFIDAVIT. A separate affidavit must be submitted for each person. You must sign the affidavit in your full, true and correct name and affirm or make it under oath. If you are in the United States the affidavit may be sworn to or affirmed before an immigration officer without the payment of fee, or before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes, in which case the official seal or certificate of authority to administer oaths must be affixed. If you are outside the United States the affidavit must be sworn to or affirmed before a United States consular or immigration officer.

- II. SUPPORTING EVIDENCE. The deponent must submit in duplicate evidence of income and resources, as appropriate:
- A. Statement from an officer of the bank or other financial institution in which you have deposits giving the following details regarding your account:
- 1. Date account opened.
- 2. Total amount deposited for the past year.
- 3. Present balance.
- B. Statement of your employer on business stationery, showing:
- 1. Date and nature of employment.
- 2. Salary paid.
- 3. Whether position is temporary or permanent.
- C. If self-employed:
- 1. Copy of last income tax return filed or,
- 2. Report of commercial rating concern.
- D. List containing serial numbers and denominations of bonds and name of record owner(s).
- III. SPONSOR AND ALIEN LIABILITY. Effective October 1 1980, amendments to section 1614(f) of the Social Security Act and Part A of Title XVI of the Social Security Act establish certain requirements for determining the eligibility of aliens who apply for the first time for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits. Effective October 1, 1981, amendments to section 415 of the Social Security Act establish similar requirements for determining the eligibility of aliens who apply for the first time for Ald to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) benefits. Effective December 22, 1981, amendments to the Food Stamp Act of 1977 affect the eligibility of alien participation in the Food Stamp Program. These amendments require that the income and resources of any person who, as the sponsor of an alien's entry in the United States, executes an affidavit of support or similar agreement on behalf of the alien, and the income and resources of the sponsor's spouse(if living with the spouse) shall be deemed to be the income and resources of the alien under formulas for determining eligiblity for SSI, AFDC, and Food Stamp benefits during the three years following the alien's entry into the United States.

An alien applying for SSI must make available to the Social Security Administration documentation concerning his or her income and resources and those of the sponsor including information which was provided in support of the application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status. An alien applying for AFDC or Food Stamps must make similar information available to the State public assistance agency. The Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Agriculture are authorized to obtain copies of any such documentation submitted to INS or the Department of State and to release such documentation to a State public assistance agency.

Sections 1621(e) and 415(d) of the Social Security Act and subsection 5(i) of the Food Stamp Act also provide that an alien and his or her sponsor shall be jointly and severally liable to repay any SSI, AFDC, or Food Stamp benefits which are incorrectly paid because of misinformation provided by a sponsor or because of a sponsor's failure to provide information. Incorrect payments which are not repaid will be withheld from any subsequent payments for which the alien or sponsor are otherwise eligible under the Social Security Act or Food Stamp Act, except that the sponsor was without fault or where good cause existed.

These provisions do not apply to the SSI, AFDC or Food Stamp eligibility of aliens admitted as refugees, granted political asylum by the Attorney General, or Cuban/Haitian entrants as defined in section 501(e) of P.L. 96–422 and of dependent children of the sponsor or sponsor's spouse. They also do not apply to the SSI or Food Stamp eligibility of an alien who becomes blind or disabled after admission into the United States for permanent residency.

permanent residency.

IV. AUTHORITY/USE/PENALTIES. Authority for the collection of information requested on this form is contained in 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(15), 1184(a), and 1258. The information will be used principally by the Service, or by any consular offlicer to whom it may be furnished, to support an alien's application for benefits under the Immigration and Nationality Act and specifically the assertion that he or she has adequate means of financial support and will not become a public charge. Submission of the information is voluntary. It may also, as a matter of routine use, be disclosed to other federal, state, local and foreign law enforcement and regulatory agencies, including the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Defense and any component thereof (if the deponent has served or is served in the armed forces of the United States), the Central Intelligence Agency, and individuals and organizations during the course of any investigation to elicit further information required to carry out Service functions. Fallure to provide the information may result in the denial of the alien's application for a visa or his or her exclusion from the United States.
